

Come to Lotus Festival and volunteer with API Equality-LA!

In July, members of API Equality-LA will be doing outreach at Lotus Festival in Echo Park. We will speak with festival go-ers about the recent California Supreme Court victory as well as the November ballot measure that seeks to permanently ban marriage for same-sex couples. We need your help!

Join us at Lotus Festival and help us recruit supporters to educate voters about marriage equality and this discriminatory ballot initiative.

We are looking for multiple volunteers to help staff each shift. Training will be provided at the beginning of each shift, and first-time volunteers will be paired with another experienced volunteer.

Volunteers needed for the following shifts:

Sunday, July 13, 2008

Shift 1: noon to 3 pm

Shift 2: 3 pm to 6 pm

To volunteer, please contact Clayton at cyeung@apalc.org.

Plenty of street parking is available around Echo Park Lake - but please read parking restriction signs carefully (even on Sunday), so you don't get a parking ticket.

Lotus Festival is a pan-Asian celebration of food, entertainment, and crafts. Please visit this site for more information: <http://www.laparks.org/grifmet/lotus.htm>.

See you there!
